

Avi Abelow
12Tribe Films Foundation
avi@12tribefilms.org

Connecting. Entertaining. Inspiring.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOME GAME SCREENINGS ACROSS ISRAEL THIS SUMMER – AGAIN

Independent Israeli film about the 2005 Disengagement Being Screened Nationwide for the Second Straight Summer

JERUSALEM, ISRAEL, June 25, 2007: This summer, the film “Home Game” will be screened in theaters throughout Israel. With screenings set to take place in Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Haifa, and Ra’anana this film will be shown in premiere theaters throughout the country.

“Home Game” has become known throughout the Jewish world as a captivating new film that encapsulates the surreal story of normal teenagers trying to continue an annual basketball tournament during a very abnormal summer in Israel – the summer of 2005 during the disengagement from Gaza. This powerful film emphasizes the journey of these teenagers and their determination to win against all odds, both on and off the court.

For additional information about screenings for this summer, or to review an event schedule please check our web site at: www.12tribefilms.org/events.php.

ABOUT 12TRIBE FILMS.

12Tribe Films Foundation (“12Tribe Films”) is a “For Impact” not-for-profit organization dedicated to promoting creative projects about the Jewish people and the land of Israel that connect, entertain, and inspire. While the projects of 12Tribe Films address religious, political, sociological, and current events effecting Israel and the Jewish people, our goal is to be an informative and educational resource that focuses on the underlying Jewish values and human experiences beneath the issues.

-END-

www.homegamethemovie.com

Avi Abelow
12Tribe Films Foundation
avi@12tribefilms.org

Connecting. Entertaining. Inspiring.

Contact:

Avi Abelow

12Tribe Films Foundation

Phone: 052-451-9609

Email: avi@12tribefilms.org

Website: www.12tribefilms.org